AN ACT RELATING TO EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 209A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by striking out section 2 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

3 Section 2. (a) Proceedings under this chapter shall be filed, heard and determined in the 4 superior court department or the Boston municipal court department or respective divisions of 5 the probate and family or district court departments having venue over the plaintiff's residence.
6 If the plaintiff has left a residence or household to avoid abuse, such plaintiff shall have the 7 option of commencing an action in the court having venue over such prior residence or 8 household, or in the court having venue over the present residence or household.

9 (b) If a plaintiff demonstrates a substantial likelihood of immediate danger of abuse, a plaintiff 10 who requests a temporary order of any justice of the superior, probate and family, district, or 11 Boston municipal court departments pursuant to this chapter shall not be denied relief because of 12 improper venue. Thereafter, if relief was granted without the filing of a complaint pursuant to 13 this chapter, the plaintiff shall appear in the court having venue over the plaintiff's residence or 14 over a prior residence or household as provided in paragraph (a). Any hearings held on the 15 continuance of such temporary order or on granting other relief as requested by the plaintiff shall

16 be heard in the court having venue over the plaintiff's residence or over a prior residence or 17 household as provided in paragraph (a).
